Women Business Owners Expert Keynotes At Women Entrepreneurs Of Canada Conference

Mary Cantando Gives Keynote Address For Think Big! Conference

RALEIGH, N.C. – Mary Cantando, a nationally recognized expert on women business owners, was the keynote speaker for the May Think Big! Creating Sustainable Growth Conference sponsored by Women Entrepreneurs of Canada (WEC) in Toronto. Cantando gave the closing address, entitled “The Woman’s Advantage,” in which she provided her insight and understanding regarding the power and potential of women business owners. Canada’s top entrepreneurs, intrapreneurs, and business leaders attended the event, which was simulcast into Vancouver and Edmonton.

“I am honored to have been asked to give the keynote address at this wonderful conference,” said Cantando. “The event helps provide an opportunity for professional women to learn more about women in business and how to better their own businesses and I am proud to be part of that.”
